

A pro forma business plan is based on financial projections and anticipated results with particular attention to cash flow and net revenues. The required 3 year business plan should outline all profit centers within the dealership.